SECTION F - ELIGIBILITY FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE A COMPLAINT (Please complete this section only if you are outside the 90 day after the date of dismissal deadline to submit your complaint.)

You may be eligible for an extension of time to file a complaint if you:

- filed a complaint with another government official
- filed a complaint under the wrong complaint category, or
- filed a previous complaint that was incomplete or that contained an error

If one of more of these criteria apply to you, complete the relevant section(s) below (section i, ii, and iii). If they do not apply to you, go to section G)

i) COMPLAINT FILED WITH ANOTHER GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL

Another government agency may include: a Provincial or Territorial government, a Human Rights Commission, a Workers Compensation Board or a federal official that you believe had the authority to deal with the complaint.

If you filed an Unjust Dismissal complaint with another government official that had no authority to deal with the complaint, an extension of time to file such complaint with the federal Labour Program may be allowed if you:

- worked 12 consecutive months or more for the named employer
- were not covered by a collective agreement, and
- filed the original complaint within 90 days of the date of dismissal

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY - EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE A COMPLAINTComplaint alleging Unjust Dismissal must be filed at any Labour Program office within 90 days from the date of dismissal.*Extension – An extension of time to file a complaint is applicable when:

- a complaint was filed within the period established by the Code, but to a government official (e.g. a provincial or territorial government) who had no authority to deal with the complaint and the person making the complaint believed the official had that authority
- a previous Genetic Testing or Reprisal complaint based on substantially the same facts was filed within the 90-day statutory time limit and was withdrawn, and/or
- a previous Unjust Dismissal complaint based on substantially the same facts was filed within the 90-day statutory time limit and was withdrawn because it was incomplete or contained an error

DECISION OF THE REGIONAL MANAGER

By the power delegated to me by the Head of Compliance and Enforcement, I extend the period of time to file a complaint of Unjust Dismissal because I am satisfied that a:

- ☐ complaint was filed within the prescribed period of time to a government official who had no authority to deal with the complaint and the person making the complaint believed the official had that authority
- ☐ a previous Genetic Testing or a Reprisal complaint, based on substantially the same facts, was filed within the 90-day statutory time limit and it was withdrawn
- ☐ a previous Unjust dismissal complaint, based on substantially the same facts, was filed within the 90-day statutory time limit and was withdrawn because it was incomplete or contained an error

The date extended is the date that the present complaint was filed with the Labour Program.
