

FOR INTERNAL USE ONLY

COMPLAINT FORM – MONETARY AND NON-MONETARY

Canada Labour Code, Part III (Labour Standards)

BEFORE FILING A COMPLAINT

- A monetary complaint must be filed within 6 months from the last day on which the employer was required to pay wages or other amounts owed.
If your monetary complaint allegations are founded and the Labour Program is required to issue a payment order for wages or other amounts owed, the retroactivity limitation period for the payment order cannot exceed:
 - 24 months prior to the date the complaint is received if currently employed, or
 - 24 months prior to the date of termination of employment, if employment was terminated prior to the filing of the complaint
- A non-monetary complaint must be filed within 6 months from the day on which the subject-matter of the complaint arose.
- Before completing this form, please review the Filing a Complaint web page and consult the list of federally regulated industries.
- For more information on federal labour standards, please visit: <https://www.canada.ca/en/services/jobs/workplace/federal-labour-standards.html> or call toll free 1-800-641-4049, Teletypewriter (TTY) users 1-800-926-9105.

SECTION G - ELIGIBILITY FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE A COMPLAINT

You may be eligible for an extension of time to file a complaint if you:

- filed a complaint with another government official, or
- filed a previous complaint that was incomplete or contained an error

If one or more of these criteria apply to you, complete the relevant section(s) below (section i and/ or ii). If they do not apply to you, go to section H.

i) COMPLAINT FILED WITH ANOTHER GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL

Another government agency may include: a provincial or territorial government, a Human Rights Commission, a Workers Compensation Board or a federal official that you believe had the authority to deal with the complaint.

If you filed a monetary and/or non-monetary complaint with another government official that had no authority to deal with the complaint, an extension of time to file such complaint with the federal Labour Program may be allowed if you:

- filed a complaint related to unpaid wages or other amounts owed within 6 months from the last day the employer was required to pay these amounts, and/or
- filed a complaint related to a non-monetary violation within 6 months from the day on which the subject-matter of the complaint arose

SECTION H - RESTRICTION ON FILING MULTIPLE COMPLAINTS FOR SUBSTANTIALLY THE SAME FACTS(Subsections 251.01(3.1) and 251.01(4) of the Canada Labour Code (Code))

This complaint cannot be filed if a genetic testing complaint (247.98 of the Code), a reprisal complaint (246.1(1) of the Code) or an unjust dismissal complaint (240(1) of the Code) has already been filed, that is based on substantially the same facts, unless that complaint has been withdrawn.

Despite what is written above, a monetary and/or non-monetary complaint may be filed if it relates only to the payment of your wages or other amounts to which you are entitled, including amounts further to a group termination, an individual termination or severance pay. The monetary and/or non-monetary complaint will be suspended until the day on which the genetic testing complaint, reprisal complaint or unjust dismissal complaint, as the case may be, is withdrawn or resolved.

As such,

Did you file a reprisal complaint with the Canada Industrial Relations Board (CIRB)?

- ☐ No, I do not allow the Labour Program to share my address and telephone number with the employer or its representative.

SECTION K - SIGNATURE OF THE COMPLAINT FORMBY THE COMPLAINANT (NO REPRESENTATION)

I (complainant) certify that the information given on this form is, to the best of my knowledge, true and correct.

Complainant Signature Date (YYYY-MM-DD)

BY A LEGAL COUNSEL OR ANOTHER AUTHORIZED INDIVIDUAL

I (authorized person*/legal counsel) certify that the information given on this form is, to the best of my knowledge, true and correct.

authorized person*/legal counsel Signature Date (YYYY-MM-DD)

IMPORTANT: The authorized person (who is not a legal counsel) must retain a proxy and attach such document to this form. The complaint will be considered officially filed at the Labour Program the date the proxy is provided.

SECTION L - REMEMBER TO

- ☐ Sign and date the form
- ☐ Complete all applicable sections

Enclose clear copies of all documents in support of your complaint such as:

- Pay statements
- Employment contract
- Complainant records
- Other (e.g., photographs, drawings or diagrams)

Important - The complainant named in this document is making a complaint in writing to the Labour Program, pursuant to section 251.01, because the complainant believes that the employer has contravened one or more provisions of the Canada Labour Code, Part III, and/or of the regulations made under that Part. The investigation into this complaint is not limited to the provisions identified in this document but may include any provision of the Canada Labour Code, Part III and/or of the regulations made under that Part.

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY - EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE A COMPLAINT

Complaints related to unpaid wages or other amounts owed (monetary) must be filed within 6 months from the last day the employer was required to pay these amounts.

Complaints related to a non-monetary labour standard violation must be filed within 6 months from the day on which the subject-matter of the complaint arose.

Extension – An extension of time to file a complaint is applicable when a:

- complaint was filed within the period established by the Code to a government official (e.g. a provincial or territorial government) who had no authority to deal with the complaint and the person making the complaint believed the official had that authority, and/or
- complaint based on substantially the same facts was previously filed within the 6-month statutory time limit and it was withdrawn because it was incomplete or contained an error

DECISION OF THE REGIONAL MANAGER

By the power delegated to me by the Head of Compliance and Enforcement, I extend the period of time to file a monetary and/or non-monetary complaint because I am satisfied that a:

- ☐ complaint was filed within the prescribed period of time to a government official who had no authority to deal with the complaint and the person making the complaint believed the official had that authority
- ☐ complaint based on substantially the same facts was previously filed within the 6-month statutory time limit and it was withdrawn because it was incomplete or contained an error

The date extended is the date that the present complaint was filed with the Labour Program.
